“ I purchased this particular looking for a ideal present for my personal mother. That the headphone arrived in a gorgeous purple tied container. This is a hunting gift less than on christmas tree!! The headphone and looked striking, although our mama are big boned and the headphone was some tight, but it really is a great gift! I like this.

“ I went out with Marlene for about a year or two. We were intimate; I told her I loved her; she had a another man in California which she loved also; I did not want competition, so I ended our relationship. She was a free spirit and a wonderful woman. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. My heart cries for her. This is such a shock.

“ I just learned today (10/26/06) that Marlene passed away, and I am so sad. We were very good friends when we were in high school (Washington High in Fremont, CA) and early college. I am so sad to hear about her passing. I have many fond memories of Marlene, including playing the guitar together through various Jim Croce, James Taylor and Beatle songs, and visiting with her while she worked as a lifeguard at the local public pools in Fremont. Her first car was a green, VW bug, which I helped teach her to drive. She was very proud of that car; it was her. . . I knew her family well and want them (Mary, Mark and Melody) to know that I will think of them and wish them well during this sad time. While I haven't seen Marlene since 1979, I will miss her, her smile and her kindness. I wish her husband and children well.Sincerely,Ron Wetter “ Marlene and I used to sit with each other while our kids took gymnastics. She was a kind and loving mom. It's no wonder that Nathan and Jordan are such sweet kids.

“ Friendship is a wonderful gift that is never fully appreciated until you lose the ability to reciprocate. Marlene touched our lives with laughter, caring and creativity. She will remain in our hearts and our memories.
