“ I believe life isn't measured in years as much as moments. If you consider how his life was lived, Al surely had long and full life on and off the water. His love and knowledge of sailing was shared with so many.

Most importantly, Al's smile could light up a room. No matter what he was doing, who he was talking to, he'd always turn and greet you with a hug and a kiss. Al, always smiling, had time for everyone. Heartfelt condolences to Al's family. May knowing how he lit up everyone's life, comfort you. Fair winds in heaven, my friend. Sail on...till we meet again.

“ My sincere condolences to Captain Al's family. He was a wonderful person and made taking the Captain's training a real joy. Captain Al's contagious smile and laugh will always be remembered by me. He was quite a man who loved life and the sea. See you on the H20 Captain Al.

“ We are all saddened by this great man's passing; I will miss his big smile and bigger spirit at Columbia Yacht Club.

I am sure Al is setting up a Captain's Class in heaven. (Even God has to give way to the starboard boat...)

“ Very Sorry to hear of Al's passing, over the years we stayed connected via email and personal visits when Al was in Maryland for boating business, the past few years we would meet to have dinner with Don Kerr, and little Al sometimes being there. We played sports at Cardinal Gibbons together from 1962-1966. I will be missing the Greek, calm seas forever brother.....Joe Williams
