

Albert R Tentler

April 1, 1926 - March 25, 2006

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Albert R Tentler

October 08, 2023 at 11:31 AM

“ marilyn, susan, michael, and the entire tentler family; any loss is hard, however some are harder than others as i know this one is. i will always think of "grumpy" as the total opposite of his endearing nickname. know he is in a better place and again with your mom and be grateful for his prescence the time that he was with you all. prayers and thoughts are with you now and always. maureen

maureen maloney - April 03, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ tommy & AL,IM SORRY TO HEAR ABOUT THE LOSS OF YOUR FATHER. MY DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO YOU & your families. "toad"

paul j. bezazian - April 02, 2006 at 12:00 AM

BI

“ My family's thoughts and prayers are with the entire Tentler family as they grieve over the loss of Mr. T. I grew up across the alley and that was the 1st place i went each day, it was the neighborhood hangout for kids. The smell of cigars was unmistakable and the booming voice saying "get out of my chair" was heard often. You can still hear him yell " GOOBER " if you listen real close. The funniest memory I have is when he caught me and Johnny Weimer stealing hostess treats from the basement fridge, we had already eaten about two shopping bags full and were greedy and went back for more. he caught us red handed, faces full of chocolate from the cupcakes. We never gave him the chance to yell, we knew it was coming so we ran for our lives. He will be greatly missed in the neighborhood I'm sure. The Tentler's are a great and proud family because of Mr T as well as the late Mrs' T. I wish them well and hope someday get back to Hood st. for some laughs with the old gang.

Brian "rocky" Ide - April 02, 2006 at 12:00 AM