“ Anne Marie was a very uniquely talented and inspiring person. She traveled around the world and had the opportunity to explore and experience places and cultures that most of us will never see. She found much joy in her friends and fur babies. Time spent with her beloved niece, Alice, brought her much happiness! Cherish the wonderful memories and moments that she leaves in your keeping. Celebrate her life and honor her legacy!

*With deepest heartfelt condolences,
Glenna and Jerry Gray*

“ What a gift to come to know Anne-Marie as part of our St. Gertrude family. She approached her journey with illness and suffering with deep faith, a sense of hope, and a wonderful “knowing” that she was loved. Praise God for the gift of her life. May she live forever with all the holy ones in God's Reign.

“ I first met Annie at the University Book Store in Madison in the 80's. Little did we know that a few years later we'd be working together at JT in Chicago. Every project, every moment, event with Annie was enjoyable -- she was simply THAT kind of person. I will cherish all the memories and the shared smiles and laughs.

Annie was a bright light in every way. Her contributions to our firm, JT, were immense and contributed mightily to our growth, strength and vitality. She battled cancer with the same strength and positive attitude with which she tackled everything. She is loved and will be deeply missed. But her spirit will live on.

I had the pleasure of working with Anne-Marie for more than a decade, but more importantly, I was lucky to call her a friend for over 20 years. She was an incredible person who will be missed deeply. Sending you one of your signature bear hugs we always shared, Anne-Marie.
