

Bernice Kiedysz

January 10, 1925 - October 13, 2023

Bernice Kiedysz, January 10, 1925 – October 13, 2023 Passed away peacefully in her home.

Devoted wife of the late Waclaw Kiedysz, Loving mother of Barbara (Antoni) Czupryna, Ted (Madaline) Kiedysz, and the late Christine Kiedysz. Loving Grandmother to Anne Hack, Tony (Britt) Czupryna, Zack (Nicole) Kiedysz, and Mari Kiedysz. Amazing Great-grandmother to Zoe, Erika, Luke, Kati, Alexa and Isaac.

Bernice was born and raised in Poland where she lived with her parents and four siblings before marrying and moving to the US. She and her husband raised three children on the north side of Chicago and in 1969 came to Edgewater and opened Chester Cleaners at Granville and Broadway where they were tailors. She loved the neighborhood and was loved by her many customers. She was a devoted and active member of St. Gertrude Parish and served for many years as a sacristan with her lifelong friends from church.

Visitation at St. Gertrude Church, 1420 W. Granville, Chicago, IL, Monday, October 23, from 4:00pm until 8:00pm and on Tuesday, October 24 from 9:00am followed by Mass at 10:00am. Interment Maryhill Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Bernice's name to St. Gertrude Church.

“ Bernice and Chester were dear friends of my family. Since my Mom's passing in May/2013, Berniece and I have kept in touch with calls and cards on each other's holidays. Barbara was gracious and bought, addressed and mailed the cards. Even with failing eyesight, Bernice wrote the lovely personal message. I have all those cards. Madeline and Bernice attended my Mom's 95th birthday party. Bernice was kind, compassionate, loving. May her memory be for a blessing. Rest in Peace.
