

Catherine Egloff

November 23, 1933 - March 5, 2022

God called Catherine Egloff home on March 5, 2022. She was born Katarina (Katica) Turina in Smrika, Croatia (Yugoslavia) on November 23, 1933. Her family immigrated to the US at the end of World War II in 1947. They settled in Chicago, near Lincoln Park. Together with her father Peter, mother Mary (Kruzic), sister Blanche and brother Matthew they started their new life in America.

She married Robert Egloff in 1961 and had two daughters Pam and Michelle. She spent her life devoted to her family. She was a working mom who balanced work and family....always putting everyone else first. She was most proud of being a grandma to Mary Biron Shmigelsky, Tim Biron, and Katherine Tentler. Catherine is most known for her Catholic faith, her love of music, dancing, her homeland of Croatia and the seaside, for playing scrabble, yahtzee and cards, and being a wonderful cook whose many recipes can't be duplicated without her loving touch.

Catherine is survived by her loving husband Robert, her children Pam Biron and Michelle Tentler, son-in-laws Paul Biron and Mike Tentler, her grandchildren Mary, Tim, and Katherine, her grandson-in-law Joe Shmigelsky, her sister Blanche Burich, her sister-in-law Sue Turina, her sister-in-law and brother-in-law Dode and William Grove, many nieces and nephews, and loving relatives back in Croatia. The family is eternally grateful to Maria Vega, her loving caregiver for the past three years.

A private family funeral service will be held at St Gertrude Church 1400 W.

Granville on March 9th at 10 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.

“ Your Mom was wonderful and so very sweet. She will be so missed. I still have her recipes that she shared with me over the years. Our sympathies and hugs to you all during this very difficult time. She's your angel keeping watch over you now and will always be there with you.
