“ Chuck was a wiz at math, a great baseball player, all the girls were crazy about him because he was kind hearted with a great sense of humor and a beautiful smile. He was curious and a good student. He loved his family and probably the only one in the family that never complained. He took what life handed him and made the best of it. He had many friends and no enemies. He looked forward to seeing his family always with a smile. He had a heart of gold. I will miss my beautiful brother.
