

David S. Mengarelli

August 26, 1948 - January 21, 2018

David Sam Mengarelli, lifelong resident of Chicago, IL, passed away at the age of 69, on 1/21/18 with all of his children by his side. He worked as a long distance truck driver for most of his life, and could often be found taking care of handyman projects around the neighborhood in later years. He was a fun-loving, sarcastic, comedian who tempered his wit with deep generosity for anyone in need. He loved throwing darts, shooting pool, going to the movies, watching tennis, Father's Day dinners at Red Lobster, and could be found enjoying an Old Style or Michelob. He was a proud father and grandfather and will be deeply missed by his children: Tony, Mike, Brian, and Kelly; and his grandchildren Max, Bryan, Eric, Malachi, Matthew, Dylan, Fantasie, Jamie and Ryan. His father Mario, and his mother, Elsie, preceded him in death.

“ Here I am in my early 60's and for some reason I googled David's name. I was so sorry to see his obituary when I did so.
David and I knew each other when I was 11 years old. His dad and my mom (Sherry) were a couple.
We even lived a couple months with his grandparents and his younger brothers. I have photos of us playing in the backyard on a slip and slide my mom bought us. Funny how I don't remember the boys names but remembered David's. Michael or Martin maybe.
I never forgot David after our parents split up. He always treated me like the sister he never had.
It was interesting to hear he continued to drive truck as that's what he was doing back then, just starting out driving for Allied.
Wish we had connected before his passing but I did feel the need to post something on here.
May he rest in peace.
Shannon
