

Erasmo Garcia - Olivares

November 25, 1954 - May 23, 2020

Erasmo García, beloved husband, father and adored grandfather. Known to all as Amo and to his oldest friends as Tortuga. He was born in Mexico and came to Chicago for a better life but little did he know it's where he would create a home and family that loved him unconditionally.

Amo always had a way with the ladies and if you ever accompanied him to any of his appointments you would meet all his girlfriends (nurses and doctors), like his beloved Dr. Rosato.

Amo was a food aficionado and shared the love with his children and he always had a sweet tooth and his grandchildren reaped the benefits...
