

Gerardo Jojo Carpio

December 31, 1948 - January 22, 2022

Gerardo "Jojo" Carpio, 73, passed on January 22, 2022 peacefully surrounded by his loved ones. Jojo was most fondly remembered for his love of family and friends. His time at American Airlines fueled his passion for travel. At every party, as soon as the music started, we knew where to find him...on the dance floor or at the bar! We will forever remember his endearing smile and welcoming spirit.

Jojo is survived by his loving wife, Leila of 46 years, and children, Jen (Roman) & Rico (Kim). Proud grandfather of Christian, Jayden, Maddie, & Bella. Beloved brother to the late Rhoby (Cora), Eddie (Tere), the late Brena, Eric (Veronique), and Dennis.

Cheers to you, Jojo. We love you and will miss you always.

“ Jojo, I can't believe you're gone. When you called me on December 10th, I never imagined it would be the last time we would speak. I am honored and privileged to have called you friend for 33 years. The memories we shared at work I will cherish forever. My sincerest condolences to Leila, Jen and Rico. We lost a real treasure.

What a gentleman. I had such respect for JoJo. I remember one day at the doctors office someone tapped me from behind. It was JoJo. It turns out we had the same doctor at NWM downtown. You will be missed. My deepest condolences for his family 🙏
