

Harold Hal Mann Jr.

September 16, 1952 - November 9, 2021

Harold (Hal, Cisco) Andrew Mann, Jr., 69, of Chicago, passed away peacefully on November 9, 2021 after a lengthy illness. Hal was the dearly beloved husband of Patricia Kunkel Mann who was totally devoted to him, especially throughout his illness the last several years. He deeply loved his son Andrew (Harold Andrew) Mann, III and daughter Emily Mann, and was very proud of both of them. He was the beloved son of the late Emily and Harold Mann and the late Eva and Gene Berlanga, his dear aunt and uncle with whom he lived for many years.

He was known as Cisco to his family, a name he gave himself at age two in honor of a neighbor's dog. He was greatly loved by his siblings and family members Yvonne (Ty) Kemp, Mary Mann (deceased), Mercedes Mann (Bill Piet), Virginia Mann (Gary Dupuis), Ava Mann Tossi and Ronald Olivares (deceased). He loved his many nieces, nephews and family members, including David Nealis, Andrew Mann, Brent Kemp and the late Desiree Kemp Hoed. He is survived by many loving cousins and dear friends.

A Navy veteran, he enjoyed a career as a Sergeant with the Cook County Sheriff's Department from which he recently retired and where he proudly served with the SWAP unit. He was a member of the Elks and American Legion Post 134. He was the longtime Commander of the former AMVETS Post 243, where for many years he helped organize the Memorial Day

Services at Rosehill Cemetery. When he was younger, he volunteered at Chicago's Lincoln Park Zoo. He loved to read, cook, attend Chicago Cubs games, tell corny jokes and entertain others.

His family is grateful for the wonderful care he received from throughout the North Shore Hospital System the past four years, especially the doctors, nurses and staff at Evanston and Glenbrook Hospitals. Their knowledge, skill, kindness, compassion and understanding helped ease many difficult situations and extend his life so he could enjoy more good days with his family.

Visitation will be held from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Sunday, November 14, 2021 at Barr Funeral Home, 6222 N. Broadway, Chicago, Ill with a prayer service at 7:00 p.m. The Funeral Mass will be held at St. Jerome Church, 1709 W. “ 'A warm loving father and husband to Pat. He loved life and looked forward to a new life in Arizona. Now his new life is in heaven. He had a great outlook and dealt with the cards he drew in life. He was a great cousin with a warm, generous heart.

We hooked up at a time when I had to get 62 to 74 ounces of water in me to counteract the ill effects of chemo. He cajoled, and nudged me to get that water in me. It was a two way street. He had to drink the same amount daily. I don't think I ever hit 62 ounces. I know he did.

He had a love of life, wisdom, and shared it with all. We all became better people because of Cisco, a man who as a child loved a special chihuahua, and took that Chihuahua's name for himself.

Chihuahua's are great dogs, and Cisco was a great man

Who had to endure the unindurable in the last years of his life. God bless you Cisco. Enjoy your new life in heaven. Thank you for helping me along my path with your support, kindness and love. You will be missed. Your cousin, Martha

“ Sgt Mann was one of my best sergeants while working in the Sheriff's department. He was truly a good and sometimes a pain in the neck Sarge, but he was the most freeheart person you could ever meet. I am so glad that I got a chance to communicate with him on several occasions after being sick and very saddened that I didn't get a chance to visit him at all. I am truly going to miss you Sgt Mann. R.I.P love you D/S Jones #11537

“ Even at the age of 2 Cisco always knew what he wanted and he wanted to be called “Cisco” after our landlords Chihuahua. My husband, Ty (then my boyfriend) first met Cisco when Cisco was 6 years old. Ty was amazed at how well Cisco could read anything you put in front of him. So anywhere we went Ty would show him off by having him read anything put in front of him. Yes he was always an avid reader. As Cisco got older Ty became his Scout Master and we all shared those special Scout Outings together, Disneyland and Knotts Berry Farm. On those Outings Desiree, Brent and I were sure to tag along. The camping trips were for the Troup and that’s where Cisco needed some practice (LOL). We all laughed so hard when Ty recounted Cisco bringing water to the fire pit being prepared to cook breakfast and promptly spilling the water over the fire. Or while fishing getting the fishing hook caught in his back. As a teenager Ty taught him how to drive and helped his Aunt Eva and Uncle Gene buy him his first cars, a 1957 Chevy and later a Purple Bug that his Aunt promptly named “The Easter Egg”. They dearly loved him and always called him “My Boy.” Later as a young adult he and Ty worked together for awhile at Sales Consultants.

Cisco’s quick wit was such a big part of his personality, he could always get the last word and usually with humor. One of his corny knock knock jokes that has always stuck with me is,
Knock knock, Who’s there? Isadore. Isadore who? IS A DOOR WOOD

We are so blessed to have had such a big and loving loving part in his life. You could say we all grew up together, Ty, myself, Desiree, Brent and Cisco.

Cisco We Love You to the Moon and Back,
Yvonne, Ty, Desiree and Brent 💕💕💕💕💕
