

Hilario Burciaga

June 12, 1956 - August 3, 2016

Hilario Burciaga, aka "Richi", born June 12, 1956 passed peacefully on August 3rd, 2016 surrounded by love, prayer, family and friends. Hilario was a man of deep Catholic faith and devoted his life to God, his family and his work.

He immigrated here from Durango, Mexico 40+ years ago and became a U.S. citizen all in the pursuit of the American Dream.

Hilario worked at the Mirage restaurant for over 20 years, giving 110% of himself to his true love and passion for the food/cooking industry. Hilario's deep love for his family was his first love and priority, making sure his family had everything and more. His strong work ethics, morals and high standards are deeply rooted as he leaves behind those values in his beloved daughters. Hilario, a loving father to Ashley, Victoria and Vianey also leaves behind loving brothers and sisters, many dear nieces and nephews, his treasured life partner Rhonda and his forever friend Steve, along with many eternal friends. Visitation Tuesday, 3-9pm at The Elms Funeral Home, 7600 W Grand, Elmwood Park. Funeral Wednesday 10am at St John Bosco, 2250 McVicker, Chicago. Cremation to follow.
