

James Logan

May 30, 1946 - December 12, 2016

James Logan, age 70, died suddenly on Dec 12. He was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania May 30, 1946. Son of the late John and Josephine (Meehan) Logan. He is survived by a brother Joseph (Dolores) of Kansas City, Missouri. A brother Thomas (Elizabeth) of Bel Air, Maryland. Jim was predeceased by his brother Abbot John Logan of Middletown, Delaware. For the past 12 years Jim shared his laughter, love and life with Nancy Crandall. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews. Jim graduated from Monsignor Bonner High School in Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania. He joined the Marines in 1966 and served in Vietnam. Jim had lived in Chicago since the early 70's.

(Anyone who would like to make a contribution in Jim's memory may do so to the American Heart Association 208 S LaSalle St Set 1500 Chicago, IL 60604.)

Cemetery Details

Montrose Cemetery

5400 N Pulaski Road
Chicago, IL 60630
(773) 478-5400
<http://www.montrosecemetery.com>

Previous Events

Cemetery

DEC 21. 10:00 AM (CT)

Montrose Cemetery
5400 N Pulaski Road
Chicago, IL 60630
(773) 478-5400
<http://www.montrosecemetery.com>

Tribute Wall

“ James Logan

October 08, 2023 at 11:31 AM