Jeanne was a retired nurse and friend to all. She enjoyed entertaining and got great joy out of being complemented on her incredible cooking. She took tremendous pride in watching all of her grandchildren grow into wonderful adults. When they were growing up, you could be assured of finding her in the stands cheering them on. The cheering continued long after the games stopped. She was preceded in death by her husband John and daughters Holly and Mickey. She is survived by her son Mark (Patty), and sisters Marilyn and Pat; as well as grandchildren John, Tom, and Sheridan Allen, Sarah Hubball (John), Steve Stark and Johnny Stark.

“ Dear Mark and family. The passing of your mother, Jeanne is so difficult for you but I know she is as peace. She gave life to three beautiful children, you Mark and Holly and Mickey and lost her husband, your father, so long ago. Her struggles were difficult but she always had time for her family and friend. Working at Aschanasch was hard and studying to be a nurse was a wonderful success. Tom and I loved Jeanne and we felt she could confide in us. God love you Mark and grandchildren and all of the family. I feel that one by one my friends are waving goodbye. But we will meet again and so will you dear Allen family. Sincerely, Marylyn Ahlfeld and family.
