“ My Hawthorne basketball teams competed against NCA and Jeremy for several years and we were always impressed with not only Jeremy's skills and determination to win and play hard, but mostly the class and style he projected while on the court. My son Luke, also 13, has been very moved by the loss of a competetor like Jeremy and I will also always remember this fine young man. Our prayers are often offered these days for the family Jeremy leaves behind, but we are comforted to know he is with his sister and mother in a better place.

“ Oh, Jeremy! What a sweet, thoughtful boy! When we took Jeremy with us to a friends' Hawaiiin Luau party, we won all kinds of great toys, amazing gadgets (like a fancy new phone), and luscious smelling soaps. The thing that Jeremy most wanted was the soap, which smelled of mango, to bring home and share with his family. "Because," he said "The soap we have at home is so...yuck!" So, I gave him the soap. He was delighted and grateful for the bar of soap! I was touched that his request was so simple, and that it reflected a deeply ingrained family value - thoughtfulness of others, and cleanliness. God bless you all during this tumultuous time. What a deep and profound loss. I pray you will find healing in your hearts! If life is but a dream, then Jeremy has awakened!
