

Joan Marie Harrington

June 10, 1960 - April 5, 2020

Mother, wife, teacher, and friend. Lost her battle with cancer Sunday, April 5 with her hand held by her husband Tim, and surrounded by her children Edward, Emily, and Patrick. A peaceful ending to a loving life dedicated always to others before herself. She will be missed in so many ways.

If you have a photo or a story, please share it with us here so all can see.

A funeral Mass will be held once the world returns to semi-normal, and St Gertrude Church reopens for services.

“ Dear Tim and Family,

As you know so well, I invariably spent some time at 6222 N. Broadway on my annual summer school visit to the U.S. For many years, that would be with you and Joan and your three children. I always looked forward to being with you.

In later years, Joan and I became quite close. I loved to have time with her. We had many long conversations and i got to know more about her work.

I grew in admiration of her as such a warm person. I treasure this.

All the more do I understand your loss, Tim. It is so painful.

You, Ed, Emily and Patrick were blessed to be with her at her very peaceful death. Peaceful because she was a woman of deep faith.

You know that you continue to be firmly in my prayer.

Love. Jack
