“ I'll really miss you John, he was a very warm and special friend, NEVER wanting to inconvenience anyone. I enjoyed hanging out with John while cleaning....John would treat me to the Arlington Park Race Track, he would say oh don't worry I'll make it through.....I'd get a wheel chair anyway and push him through the park and he'd fuss but allow me to push him anyways.....Oh how I'll miss him.....May you rest in peace and thanks for the fond memories.....I Love You John and I'll always Miss You, Denise

“ So sorry to hear of the loss of my friend, John. We worked together for many, many years and I will always remember his great smile and wonderful laugh. I'm glad I was able to talk with him several days ago and we talked of 'old times'. Thanks, John, for the great memories. May God keep you close to His heart. Ar

“ John was one of our dearest and closest friends. He was a member of our Wedding party 25 years ago. We will always have fond memories of him, especially of our trips to the Dubuque dog track races, Arlington race track and of course Las Vegas. John was a lot of fun and lived his life to the fullest. We will miss his laughter and all the fun times we had. May he rest in peace.

“ So sorry to learn about your loss. Please be comforted by the resurrection hope found at John 5:28,29 & Acts 24:15. Jehovah promises us the opportunity to see out deceased loved ones again on a paradise earth. If you would like to know more you can ask any one of Jehovah's Witnesses for the brochure: "When Someone You Love Dies". Sincerely yours, Elaine Jones
