“ I grew up knowing Mama in the mid 80s in Benin City, Nigeria. We were close neighbors and Mama was a devoted Christian, kind, elegant, very reserved and strict. She was a mother to all. May her gentle soul rest in peace 🙏🙏

“ Tribute to a Loving Mother

Today, my heart is full of both gratitude and pain as I remember a woman who was more than just my friend's mother—she was truly a mother to me.

From the very beginning, she welcomed me with open arms and took me as her own. Her love was genuine, warm, and unconditional. She had a special way of making everyone feel seen, valued, and deeply loved. To her, no one was a stranger—she loved all as hers.

She fondly called me her “dancing queen,” a name that still echoes in my heart and brings a smile to my face. Those moments we shared, especially in church, will forever remain precious to me.

Every October 30th, it became a tradition for me to sing for her on her birthday over the phone. It was something small, but she received it with so much joy and love—just like everything else about her.

The last time I saw her in late December 2025 is a memory I will treasure forever. She was so happy to see me, and we spoke heart to heart, just like a mother and daughter. We laughed, we connected, and we took pictures—beautiful memories I now hold very close. I did not know that moment would be our last, but I am so thankful God gave us that time together.

I thank God for her life, and I also thank Him for her children, who cared for her with so much love and devotion. She was truly blessed, and she raised a family that reflects her kindness and strength.

Though she is no longer with us physically, her love, her laughter, and her beautiful spirit will continue to live on in my heart and in the lives of everyone she touched.

Rest well, sweet mother. You will always be loved, and you will never be forgotten.

your Adopted daughter

I am still struggling to find the right words to use right now. Mum's absence is a void that cannot be filled, and she will definitely be missed beyond measure.

Marie, I want you to know I care about you and the family and I am sending you love, strength and prayers during this difficult time.

With all my love and deepest sympathy ~ Louisa Awobiyi

“ She was a matriarch of great inestimable astuteness. A mother hen to all and sundry, a devoted and deep follower of Christ, humble, matronly and warmly.
She was a great personality without much ado..
I know the fortitude to bear this loss ONLY comes from God..
May His grace be upon you all children of this great Apostle, and may her gentle soul rest in power and peace!

“ Mama was a very loving mom to alot of us that are friends to her children.

One thing I admire in her was her very cognitive nature. She remembers everything with 100 accuracy even with her age. Mom keep resting in the Lord and continue to watch over us your children.

Thank you so much Mama for everything, especially helping me and my wife in raising up our children and late at night waiting for me to get back from work, also the times we spent together on Sunday evenings, chatting, listening to vintage edo music while sipping your new found favorite Irish cream, saying it helped you sleep well at night! Your prayers too everyday with the family played a very important role . You treated me like your son mama. I still check your room everyday like I used to do, to see if you are awake. May your soul rest in perfect peace in the bossom of the Lord. Miss you mama ❤️

Though I never physically met you I have met your daughter Juliette who is an example of a decent and well nurtured and disciplined woman. She speaks so often of you whenever she is opportuned to visit my wife(who is a good friend to Juliette) and I in Rhode Island. That personality which she expresses must be a product of who are as a mother and as a good Christian child of God. We shall miss you so much as a Godly mother and your memory will forever remain with us as you continue to rest in perfect peace in the bosom of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen. I can still remember my first meeting/encounter with Ijayeola Omosun, which was when my elder Brother Shiaka Omosun, the husband, brought her home, to our traditional family home in Eguare Ewu, to introduce her to the Osemunu Omosun family. Though I was at a young age at that time I still remember her and the joy that filled us all. Though she is no longer with us, but her spirit and laughter remain forever in my heart.
