“ A friendship that spanned 18 years through NYC, babies, marriage, life transitions, Chicago and such. Kris you were my rock at times when I needed love and support the most. And I know, gladly, that I was able to reciprocate. I cannot believe that you are gone. I love you sister friend. And I feel the huge imprint that you left behind. I know that you are wrapping us all up in a huge celestial hug! Until we meet again dear friend.

“ Kris, my heart aches as I learned of your passing. You were an amazing person, always responded to my dumb texts inquiring about the Real Estate Market. You were so driven and outgoing and never gave up. I considered you my friend.

Rest in Peace my friend

“ Our sincerest sympathy goes out to all of Kris' family. She was smart, savvy, fun -- and had connections with everyone. It was always clear from the stories she shared how proud she was of her family and how much she loved them and enjoyed them. Blessings and peace.

“ Krissy lives on in memories of her sparkle and spunk! I have sweet memories of Krissy and of all the Mork kids as little kids I loved to babysit for. Sweet memories of Kris and my sister Margo as little girls and such cute pals. Prayers for God's perfect peace for all of you as you celebrate Krissy's life.

Love to you
