Larry. I've known you since I was a little girl. Many years have passed and so much fun we had a blast. I'm sorry your life was cut short. But, like me, I think we squeezed every drop out of it we could get during our time here. I know you are resting in peace now and I look forward to the day when we meet again. In the meantime keep watch on all the derelicts down here 😎. Just like my dad, you are some special guy 🥺

“ Larry was a passionate guy about his family, his tavern that neighbors knew that their names and faces were always recognized and welcome. Larry had a big heart raising money for several charities especially the Northside Catholic Academy (NCA) and Care for Real with coat drives and the famous Queen of Hearts raffle. He was a fighter and he was loved by many. Andrea Raila & Family

“ I was so, so sorry to hear this news. When I first moved to Chicago (20+ years ago), the Bubble was one of the first bars I checked out for Football Sunday's. Needless to say, thanks to Larry's immediate hospitality, I never looked for another alternative. Every Sunday Larry's place was like a second home for me and many of my friends. Larry looked out for us....took care of us...and week one of every NFL season became such a tradition that it was like a second Christmas for me and my buddies.

Beyond NFL Sunday's, I also saw Larry last fall at my son's football game. I'll never forget how interested he was in watching my son play, and meeting him afterwards. And now I'm so glad that happened.

Larry was such a fun and kind man...I will truly miss him.

“ Condolences to Larry's entire family. Larry was a high school friend of mine. He was the athlete and I was the cheerleader. He was the only one on any team to thank me for supporting him at games. We double dated once or twice. I was thrilled to reconnect with him at our 50th reunion. He was one of the kindest people I've ever known. Rest in peace.

I met Larry at Senn High School in 1965 or 1966. It was a wonderful friendship. Larry always told me I couldn't win at the racetrack. Boy was he right. I appreciate that Larry. Thank you Larry Rest in Pezce.

I did not know Larry, but I have walked past the Double Bubble many times these recent months on my evening walks. Tonight I saw this evidence of the people that did know him, love him, and will certainly remember him forever. I wanted to share that in these four photos. 📷
