She was born on October 6, 1937 to Margaret Elizabeth and Louis Thomas Scanlan. Beloved sister of (late) Eleanor Ann Huber, (late) Thomas Joseph Scanlan, and (late) Rev. Francis Gerald Scanlan.

Peggy followed in the footsteps of her beloved Mother and Sister Eleanor, and became an RN. She attended St Sophia Seminary with a focus on Spirituality. Peg received an Associates Degree in Nursing from Amundsen-Mayfair Junior College. She earned a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from DePaul University in 1990. She was a nurse in the Chicagoland area for well over 25 years. She worked in Medical, Surgical, and Intensive Care units at various hospitals throughout her career. She held a position of Parish Nurse for the Archdioceses of Chicago. She taught Gerontology for the Chicago Board of Education.

Later in life, she was a trailblazer for a cause she was so passionate about, Holistic Nursing. She was a certified Healing Touch Practitioner, Holistic Nurse, as well as a Reiki Master. She created "The Healing Touch". Peg had a private practice and taught Therapeutic/Healing Touch, Energy Medicine and other Mind/Body/Spirit Topics.

She is survived by her nephews Gerald (Rae) Huber, and Thomas (Danielle) Huber. Peggy is also survived by her 3 great-niece and nephews, Ryan (Kristina) Huber, Jacquelyn (Raymond) Taylor, and Nicholas Huber. They were as close as she had to grandchildren of her own.

She famously arrived fashionably late for Christmas Eve Dinner, never failed to keep us on our toes with hilarious stories, and always brought delicious baked goods to every occasion. If you were lucky enough to be loved by her, she called you and sang happy birthday to you every year on your birthday.
