

Mark Jerger

February 27, 1955 - October 24, 2022

Mark Jerger (67) was the beloved husband of Armi Jerger, loving father of three sons; Bryan, James, and Joseph, devoted son of Jacob Jake Jerger and Maureen Jerger, beloved brother to Denise Jerger, and a friend to many.

Mark had been a banker at several local banks and retired at Berwyn National Bank (now 5/3rd). After retirement he joined his wife at Primerica as an instructor for state life insurance licensing.

Mark was extremely active with many different civic organizations within Chicago. Mark was a Scoutmaster at St. Hilary parish and school, he was very involved with the Lions Club- Uptown chapter, as well as an active parent volunteer at all his children's schools; St. Hilary, St. Benedict, Northtown (formerly Good Council), and Northside College Prep.

Mark loved life, and taking his family and himself to many different places around the world. Mark loved photography and was a living example of fortitude, sharing, caring, and human kindness. Mark will never be forgotten by those who loved him, knew him, and worked alongside him.

Visitation is November 7-8 (Monday-Tuesday) at Barr Funeral Home (6222 N. Broadway, Chicago, IL) from 3:00 pm to 8:00 pm both days. The funeral mass will be held at St. Benedict Parish (2215 W. Irving Park Rd, Chicago, IL) at “ Armi, as a long-time member of the Uptown Lion's, too, as you might remember, you and Mark were some of the first to welcome me and South-East Asia Center. Mark was one of those few outstanding members who truly cared and wanted to do good things. We were on the same page. San and I will remember Mark fondly. Our best to you, Armi. Peter Porr
