“ Dear Willy - I was saddened to hear - from brother John - about your loss. Mary was a wonderful person & really fun neighbor while we & her brother Tom - were growing up on good old Magnolia! I was reminded - amongst other things - that she did a lot of "baby sitting" for my sister's kids - Vickie, Jimmy & John Powers . She must have done a good job - because they all survived! Those & my "batboy days" for you & all the guys are wonderful memories. Again, please accept my condolences. Doug

“ terri and kelly and all you all. peace to everyone who enters the kingdom of God, and she is at peace. i will never forget when her and kath (blatz) waited up for betsy and i in waupaca. we went up there for betsy's last hurrah before joining the navy. we went to a parrot head concert at poplar creek, before hand and then drove straight to the cabin. arriving in the wee hours, there were our other moms' playing cards and drinking coffee. thanks mar, we love ya. mo and bets.
