“ Pat and I were roommates for our first two years at St. Mary's College. I was sorry to learn of her passing from our alumni magazine. Pat was a great roommate. Her voice was distinctive and I could always know it was her the moment that I picked up the phone. She loved her native Chicago, was great at math, and had a wonderful, dry sense of humor. I know that she will be missed by her family and close friends. My deepest sympathy. Susan Thornton Daly

“ We were neighbors of Pat's for several years in the late-90s/early-2000s and enjoyed talking with her, especially bonding over old house things. She was a lovely person. We were so sad to hear of her passing. - Traci & Paul Failla

“ My sincere condolences to Pat's family and friends I remember her as a dark haired, smiling teen who always seemed ready for fun and gave 100% effort to every project. May she rest in peace and may you remember her happiest times.

“ I have so many memories of Aunt Pat and all of them bring a smile to my face. Pat was an extremely intelligent women but I do remember one phone call I received from her which I will never forget. Pat spent most Thanksgivings with us and Mom did all the cooking, after Mom passed it was just a few days before Thanksgiving and I received a call at work from Pat and Anne asking me how Mom made the green bean casserole, I remember laughing so hard and told them to just read the can of cream of mushroom soup. I am going to miss her so much but I know she is with Mom and Bob and they are having a wonderful time! Love Always, Megan

“ There are too many memories to share just one or two. What I will share is that Pat was a wonderful sister-in-law and will truly be missed. It was for all the wrong reasons she was moved near to Anne and I for the last three years, but in so many ways it was a blessing to have her close by. And while Pat always claimed to be a White Sox fan, I know deep down...and have proof...that she was a closet Cubs fan. Pat if you're looking down at this, you know what I mean, don't you? :) With love, Ron
