

Robert Egloff

August 26, 1934 - January 19, 2024

God called Robert Egloff home on January 19, 2024. He was born in Chicago on August 26, 1934 to Marie and Raymond Egloff. He grew up with his parents and sisters, Patricia and Dolores, in the city where his father owned and operated a family hardware store. In his early twenties, he served in the U.S. Army, stationed for a time in Alaska.

Upon his return he met and married Catherine Turina. They were wed on February 11, 1961, and had two Daughters, Pam and Michelle. He worked many jobs during his life including at metals work at Hills-Mccanna and the Naval Ordnance Station, manufacturing work at Pullman on the south side of Chicago, and house painting for M. Ecker company.

Of all the things in his life, he was most proud of his family, especially his grandchildren Mary, Tim and Katherine.

Robert is survived by his daughters Pam Biron and Michelle Tentler, sons-in-law Paul Biron and Mike Tentler, grandchildren Mary Biron Shmigelsky, Tim Biron and Katherine Tentler, grandson-in-law Joe Shmigelsky, his sister and brother-in-law Dode and William Grove, his sisters-in-law Blanche Burich and Sue Turina, and many nieces and nephews.

The family is forever grateful to Maria Vega, his devoted caregiver for the past five years. She was truly a blessing to him as well as Catherine.

A small, private service was held at St Gertrude's Catholic Church on February 3rd.
