

Rosa Zapata

August 30, 1925 - April 19, 2017

Rosa G Zapata lived a long and full life. Her cheerful disposition, strong will, and sense of humor were admired by a multitude of friends and family. After a long career on behalf of immigrants and immigrant rights, Rosa spent many years volunteering at her beloved Art Institute of Chicago. She adored cultural activities, the Ravinia Music Festival, travel and fine food-particularly sweets. Her life made a positive impact on everyone she touched and she will be missed by all.

“ My dear friend, I have been remembering you especially today, on your birthday. You are greatly missed; I miss our long telephone conversations, your laughter, your stories. But I know that you are in a much better place and enjoying the company of the loved ones that left before you. You're probably having fun with my mom, your great friend, whom you missed dearly. Enjoy your birthday my dear Rosita - besitos al cielo que hoy esta de fiesta !!!!
