“ I was deeply saddened last Thursday to read of Viv's passing, albeit too late to pay my respects in person. As a boy, I grew up on Winthrop Ave., in the building where John, Sr. and his parents lived....along with the Sherwood family. So I knew Viv before she and John married. And occasionally, ran into them in an Irish pub on Devon Avenue and elsewhere. I always had the highest respect and warmth for both of them and last saw Viv when I paid my respects at John Sr., funeral. I always meant to call her and visit, but now, sadly, never did. She was a kind and gentle woman who always had a smile and a good word....and always asked about my Mother. I shall miss knowing that she is no longer with us. The family has my deepest condolences.
